BRINGING THE WORLD TO ITS FEET

LAWRENCE M. (LARRY) TANENBAUM, O.C.

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD,
MAPLE LEAF SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Larry Tanenbaum was appointed Chairman of Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment in February, 2003. He serves as Chairman of the NBA Board of Governors, as well as Governor for the Toronto Raptors, Governor and member of the Executive Committee of the NHL for the Toronto Maple Leafs and governor and member of the Executive Committee of Major League Soccer for Toronto FC. In May, 2015, the Kilmer Group, led by Mr. Tanenbaum, and Bell Canada announced the purchase of the Toronto Argonauts. MLSE acquired the team in January, 2018. He is a member of the Board and Executive Committee of the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto, Ontario, and Co-Chair of the 2026 FIFA World Cup.

Mr. Tanenbaum was a primary force in bringing an NBA franchise to Toronto. In the early 1990's, Tanenbaum attempted to move established NBA clubs to Toronto and then, as head of the Palestra Group, he initiated the expansion process that introduced the NBA to Canada. Although the franchise was awarded to another group, Tanenbaum established himself in NBA circles and the city as a legitimate contender for an NBA team.

In 1996, Mr. Tanenbaum acquired an interest in the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League and Maple Leaf Gardens, Limited (now Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment). With MLG's purchase of the Raptors and Air Canada Centre in February 1998, Tanenbaum fulfilled his goal of NBA and NHL ownership in Toronto under the same group.

Mr. Tanenbaum is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Kilmer Van Nostrand Co. Limited (Kilmer). Under his direction, Kilmer developed into a multi-faceted civil engineering and construction company whose operating divisions covered road building and paving, ready-mix concrete, aggregates, heavy construction, trucking and pipe manufacturing. Kilmer's road building, paving and aggregates operations were conducted through Kilmer's wholly owned subsidiary, The Warren Paving & Materials Group Limited. Mr. Tanenbaum served as Chairman of Warren, which, until its merger with Lafarge North America, was Canada's largest asphalt paving and aggregate company. In December 2000 Warren was merged into Lafarge North America Inc., North America's largest diversified construction materials company and supplier of cement, aggregates and concrete, and other materials for residential, commercial, institutional and public works construction in the United States and Canada. As a result of this merger, Kilmer became a significant shareholder in Lafarge, and Mr. Tanenbaum served on the Board and chaired its Finance Committee until the 2006 buyout by its parent company, Lafarge SA of France.

Today, Kilmer's roots in construction are expressed through innovative real estate development and leading edge public private partnerships (P3). Its Kilmer Brownfield Equity Fund reclaims contaminated land in the urban context, through sophisticated risk management and optimizing for highest and best use. Its Kilmer Developments is currently managing three P3's: The Quickload Container Examination Facility in Prince Rupert, B.C.; the 20 Ontario Highway Service Centre locations under the ONroute banner, in partnership with HMS Host and Canadian Tire; and in partnership with Dream, designed, financed and constructed the 2015 Pan Am Games Athletes' Village, which has been converted into condominiums as part of the Canary District Project. Most recently, Kilmer was part of the consortium that acquired the passenger terminal operations at Billy Bishop Toronto City Airport.

In addition, Mr. Tanenbaum serves as Chairman of Kilmer Capital Partners Limited, a private equity investment fund manager, which provides equity capital to small and mid-market companies and is dedicated to building leading companies in partnership with management. Kilmer Capital's investments have included Give and Go Prepared Foods Corp., McGregor Industries Inc., Unisync Corp. Inc., Vansco Electronics Ltd., Altasciences Inc., Atelka Enterprises Inc., Compact Power Inc., English Bay and Tribal Sportswear. Kilmer Private Equity's current portfolio includes Coalision Inc., and Kilmer Forestry, comprising Chaleur and Fornebu Sawmills in New Brunswick.

Mr. Tanenbaum served as National Revenue Chair of the Liberal Party of Canada during Prime Minister Paul Martin's term of office. He is a former member of the Ontario Investment and Trade Advisory Council, the Advisory Council, Toronto Board of Trade and the Toronto Prosperity Initiative. He has also served on the Independent Fiscal Review Panel of the City of Toronto and the Mayor's Economic Competitiveness Advisory Committee of the City of Toronto.

Mr. Tanenbaum's involvement in Community Associations includes the following: Vice Chair, Sinai Health Services – a tertiary care centre comprising Mount Sinai Hospital, Bridgepoint Hospital and Circle of Care, Chairman of the Research Board for the Lunenfeld-Tanenbaum Research Institute; Vice-Chair, Brain Canada; Member, University Council, Cornell University; Honourary Board Member, Baycrest Centre for Geriatric Care; Member of the Advisory Board, Montreal Neurological Institute; Co-Founder and member of the Board, Tanenbaum Open Science Institute; Member, Dean's Advisory Council, Schulich School of Business, York University; Founding Canadian Board Member, Executive Committee Member and member of the Global Leadership Council, Right to Play; Founding Member, Centre for Israel and Jewish Affairs; and Co-Chair, Tomorrow Campaign (UJA).

In recognition of his contributions in the areas of business, philanthropy, and volunteerism, Mr. Tanenbaum was appointed an Officer of the Order of Canada on October 25, 2007. The Order of Canada is the centrepiece of Canada's honors system and represents its highest civilian award.

In June, 2012 Mr. Tanenbaum was awarded an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by the University of Toronto. He was inducted into the Ontario Road Builders' Hall of Fame in February 2013 and received the Toronto Board of Trade's 2015 Region Builders Award.

Mr. Tanenbaum has a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics from Cornell University (1968).

DALE LASTMAN, C.M.

CFL Governor, Chair of Goodmans LLP

Dale Lastman practices corporate, commercial and securities law and provides counsel in connection with public offerings, mergers and acquisitions, and business restructurings. Lastman is a Director of Maple Leaf Sports & Entertainment Ltd. and serves as an Alternate Governor for the NHL and NBA and a Governor of the Toronto Argonauts for the CFL. In 2018, Dale was appointed Chair of the Baycrest Board of Directors and also sits on the Board of Directors of RioCan Real Estate Investment Trust, Roots Ltd. and the CAMH Foundation.

In 2017, Lastman was named a Member of the Order of Canada and was appointed by the Minister of National Defence as an Honorary Captain of the Royal Canadian Navy in 2014. He has also been awarded the rank of an Honorary Detective by the Toronto Police Service. Lastman has been recognized among “Toronto’s 50 Most Influential People” by Toronto Life Magazine. He was honoured as one of the ICRF’s 2010 “Men of Distinction” for his philanthropic efforts and contributions to the community and in 2011 and 2012, was presented with the ICRF’s Chairman’s Award. Lastman is a Director of Canada’s “Top 40 Under 40”, a recipient of the Award and its “Best of the Best” Canadian Leadership Award.

Lastman is recognized as a leading practitioner by The Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory (corporate/M&A) and has been recommended by Chambers Global (corporate/M&A), Euromoney’s Guide to the World’s Leading M&A Lawyers, IFLR 1000 (M&A), The Lexpert/ALM Guide to the Leading 500 Lawyers in Canada (corporate finance), The Best Lawyers in Canada (corporate/M&A /securities). Lastman was recognized as the Canadian Lawyer of the Year in M&A and Sports and Entertainment Lawyer of the Year by the Finance Monthly Law Awards and is currently recognized by Corporate Law Experts as its exclusively recommended lawyer in Canada.

Lastman is a lecturer in securities law at Osgoode Hall Law School and was the recipient of the “Adjunct Faculty Award for Teaching Excellence”. In 2014, he was named Distinguished Visiting Fellow in the Law Practice Program at Ryerson University. In 2016, Lastman was honoured with Osgoode’s Alumni Gold Key award for outstanding professional achievement and his contribution to the legal community.

BILL MANNING

President, Toronto Argonauts
Toronto FC

Bill Manning joined MLSE as President of Toronto FC on October 12, 2015 and later also added his responsibilities as President of the Toronto Argonauts when the Canadian Football League franchise was acquired by the company in January, 2018.

Manning joined Toronto FC after spending the previous eight seasons as president of both Real Salt Lake (RSL) and Rio Tinto Stadium. During his time with RSL, Manning transformed the club into a winner, leading the organization to a 2009 MLS Cup championship, as well as a model franchise off the pitch where both season tickets and sponsorships more than tripled. The club also won the Eastern Conference title (2009), Western Conference title (2013) and were MLS Cup runners-up (2013) and CONCACAF Champions League runners-up (2011). Manning was the recipient of the Major League Soccer Doug Hamilton Executive of the Year award in both 2012 and 2014. In addition, he helped establish, open and sold naming rights to Rio Tinto Stadium, home to Real Salt Lake.

Prior to joining MLSE, Manning previously served in executive positions with the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles, the National Basketball Association's Houston Rockets and Real Salt Lake of MLS.

A native of Massapequa, New York, Manning was a nationally-recognized collegiate soccer player at the University of Bridgeport where, as a sophomore, he helped the Purple Knights to a NCAA quarterfinal berth, and as a senior in 1986 he led his team to a final four appearance while earning first-team All-America honors. Manning continued his playing career after college and won a U.S. Open Cup with the Brooklyn Italians in 1991 and played professionally in the United Soccer League (USL) with the Penn-Jersey Spirit (1991), Valley Golden Eagles (1993) and New York Fever (1994-95). Manning also holds a U.S. Soccer National "A" Coaching License.

Manning began his career in sports management with the Continental Indoor Soccer League during its inaugural season in 1993. After his last season with the Fever, he went on to leadership roles in the United Soccer League with the Long Island Rough Riders and then the Minnesota Thunder where he was named USL Executive of the Year in 1999 following their championship season. Manning got his start in MLS in 2000 with the Tampa Bay Mutiny as President and General Manager and was named 2000 MLS Executive of the Year by the Washington Post.

MANAGEMENT

MICHAEL CLEMONS

General Manager

CAREER:

2019-Present: Toronto Argonauts,
General Manager

2009-19: Toronto Argonauts,
Vice-Chair

2007-08: Toronto Argonauts,
Chief Executive Officer

2002-07: Toronto Argonauts,
Head Coach

2001-02: Toronto Argonauts,
President

2000-01: Toronto Argonauts,
Head Coach

1989-2000: Toronto Argonauts,
Player

1988: Tampa Bay Buccaneers,
Player

1987: Kansas City Chiefs,
Player

On October 8, 2019, Michael Clemons returned to the Argonauts in a new role. On that date, the man who had done virtually everything for the Argos was named the 20th general manager in team history.

Clemons arrived in Canada from Dunedin, Florida for the first time in 1989 after stints with the Kansas City Chiefs and Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Shortly thereafter he acquired the nickname "Pinball." It was in reference to the way the diminutive running back was bouncing off would-be tacklers.

Before his playing career ended, he would carry the ball for more yards than any player in pro football history. His final total was 25,438 combined yards: 5,341 rushing, 7,015 receiving, 6,349 kickoff return, 6,025 punt return, and 708 on missed field goals.

He'd win Grey Cups with the Argos as a player in 1991, 1996 and 1997, before retiring midway through the 2000 season. He was asked to replace John Huard as the head coach for the last half of the season. Clemons made his head coaching debut in the Labour Day Classic in Hamilton on September 4, before returning to the lineup in a player/coach capacity for two games, including his final CFL game on September 15.

Clemons would coach the team for the remainder of the 2000 season, and the full 2001 campaign. He'd return a dozen games into the 2002 season after a 4-8 start by the team and would remain in that position until the end of 2007.

During that time span he'd win his fourth Grey Cup ring as an Argo, leading the team to the 2004 championship as their head coach. Clemons finished with 55 regular season coaching wins, second in team history, behind only the man that gave him his nickname. He would serve as the Argos President 2001-02, Chief Executive Officer 2007-08, and Vice-Chair from 2009-2019, where he'd win two more Grey Cup rings, giving him a total of six.

The fan favourite would win his seventh Grey Cup – his first as a general manager – in 2022. Clemons' record in Grey Cup games in an unblemished 7-0.

He would be inducted into the Canadian Football Hall of Fame in 2008 and into the Ontario Sports Hall of Fame a year later. In 2016 he was inducted into Canada's Sports Hall of Fame. He was also been named to the Order of Ontario in 2001. In 2013 he was awarded The Queen Elizabeth II Diamond Jubilee Medal.

His number 31 has been retired, one of just four Argonauts to have received that honour. Clemons was named the CFL's Most Outstanding Player in 1990. He won the CFLPA's Tom Pate Award twice, in recognition of his contributions on the field and in the community. In 2007 he and his wife Diane founded the Pinball Clemons Foundation, where the goal is to empower youth through education.

The foundation is responsible for the construction of a hospital in Uganda, over 200 schools in seven countries, a pair of orphanages in Haiti, awarded almost 200 scholarships, and provided kids with mentors, and opportunities to attend summer camp.

Clemons is a graduate of the College of William and Mary, where he received a degree in economics.

Michael and Diane Clemons have been married since 1992 and are the parents of three daughters, Rachel, Raven and Rylie, all of whom were born in Canada. Michael officially became a Canadian citizen in 2015.

VINCE MAGRI

Assistant General Manager

CAREER:

- 2022-Present: Toronto Argonauts, Assistant General Manager
- 2021-22: Toronto Argonauts, Director of Scouting
- 2018-21: Toronto Argonauts, Director of Canadian Scouting
- 2014-17: Toronto Argonauts, Director of Canadian Scouting & Video Coordinator
- 2013: Toronto Argonauts, Video Coordinator
- 2012: McMaster University, Offensive Quality Control Coach, Video Coordinator, Recruiting
- 2011: University of Toronto, Assistant Offensive Line Coach, Video Coordinator, Recruiting

Magri has climbed the front office ladder in his decade with the Argos and in March 2022 he was elevated to the position of assistant general manager.

Working in all aspects of player personnel, Magri's tremendous success at the draft table has paid off for the Argos. In the 2021 season, ten players selected by the Argos in the 2020 and 2021 drafts made their CFL debut; a ridiculously high number.

Magri joined the Argos in 2013 as their video coordinator and within a year was promoted to director of Canadian scouting, giving him a dual portfolio. He would be named director of scouting in 2021 before getting the most recent promotion in early 2022.

He's won Grey Cup rings with the Argos in 2017 and again in 2022.

A former offensive lineman, he was a four-year starter at McMaster. After graduating, Magri remained in the sport as the assistant offensive line coach, video coordinator and recruiter for the University of Toronto.

After one season with the Varsity Blues he returned to McMaster where he would be an offensive assistant coach, video coordinator and recruiter, helping the Marauders reach the Vanier Cup final.

Before heading to McMaster, Magri played for St. Michael's College School and the Etobicoke Eagles of the OVFL.

ALEX RUSSELL

Director of Football Operations,
National Scout

CAREER:

- 2022-Present: Toronto Argonauts,
Director of Football Operations,
National Scout
- 2021: Toronto Argonauts,
Manager of Football Operations
- 2019-21: Toronto Argonauts,
Coordinator of Football Operations
- 2016-18: Hamilton Tiger-Cats,
Coordinator of Football Operations
- 2016: Hamilton Tiger-Cats,
Coordinator of Football Administration

Russell joined the Argos in March 2019 after starting his CFL career with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.

With the Argos, the Ancaster, Ontario native has been continually adding responsibilities to his portfolio. He began as the team's coordinator of football operations before being promoted in 2021 to manager of football operations, then in 2022 to director of football operations and national scout.

Last year he won his first Grey Cup ring.

Russell is the football operations lead man on salary cap tracking. He works on contracts and continues to have an increased role in scouting and player evaluations.

He began his CFL career by volunteering at the 2013 CFL Combine.

After working with the Tim Horton's Field operations team, he returned to his alma mater, Western University, where he became the manager of operations/social media coordinator for the men's varsity basketball team.

Three seasons later he'd return to Hamilton as the Tiger-Cats coordinator of football administration. Soon afterward he became the team's coordinator of football operations.

The Bishop Tonnos Secondary School graduate earned his bachelor's degree at Western, appearing on the Dean's Honours List. He earned his business administration degree (honours) from the Ivey Business School at Western. Russell was a member of the Mustangs varsity cross-country team.

JOHN MURPHY

Advisor

CAREER:

2023:	Toronto Argonauts, Advisor
2019-2021:	Toronto Argonauts, Vice-President Player Personnel
2019:	Toronto Argonauts, Scout and Personnel Advisor
2016-2018:	Saskatchewan Roughriders, Assistant Vice-President Player Personnel and Football Operations
2012-2015:	Calgary Stampeders, Assistant General Manager
2010-2012:	Calgary Stampeders, Director of Scouting
2009:	Winnipeg Blue Bombers, Director of Scouting
2007-2008:	Calgary Stampeders, College and Pro Scout
2005-2007:	Montreal Alouettes, College and Pro Scout
2005:	Oakland Raiders, Scout

John Murphy is back with the Argos in 2023 as an advisor.

His connection with Canada began in 2005 as a college and pro scout for the Montreal Alouettes, followed by a similar job with the Calgary Stampeders, where he was elevated to the role of director of scouting.

The Merrick, New York native took a similar post with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers in 2010, before returning to Calgary two seasons later to become their assistant general manager.

In 2016 he'd head to Saskatchewan to become the Roughriders assistant vice-president of player personnel and football operations.

Murphy's entrance into the world of scouting was unique, as he started his own scouting service in 1999. His work with Next Level Scouting Inc. led to a job evaluating players for Yahoo! Sports, which eventually got him noticed by the Oakland Raiders, for whom he did some scouting in 2005.

He joined the Argos in early 2019 as a scout and personnel advisor before being elevated to vice president of player personnel in early October.

He was relieved of his duties at the conclusion of the 2021 season before being brought back to the organization in 2023. A resident of Houston, Texas, Murphy attended Hofstra University.

RYAN DINWIDDIE

Head Coach

COACHING CAREER:

2022-Present: Toronto Argonauts,
Head Coach,
Offensive Coordinator

2020: Toronto Argonauts,
Head Coach

2016-19: Calgary Stampeders,
Quarterbacks Coach

2015: Montreal Alouettes,
Running Backs Coach,
Co-Offensive Coordinator

2014: Montreal Alouettes,
Offensive Coordinator

2013: Montreal Alouettes,
Quality Control Coach

A new era began in Toronto on December 12, 2019 when Ryan Dinwiddie became the 45th head coach in Argonauts history.

In 2021, his first season with the Argos, Dinwiddie led the team to a 9-5 record and first place in the East Division. He would be recognized by being one of the finalists for the CFL Coach of the Year award.

He added the offensive coordinator role to his title in January 2022 and led the Argos to even greater heights. The team finished 11-7 in the regular season, defeated Montreal in the Eastern Final, then beat Winnipeg to win the 18th Grey Cup in franchise history.

Dinwiddie was again named the East Division's Coach of the Year.

The former CFL quarterback joined the Double Blue from Calgary, where he had been the Stampeders quarterbacks coach for the previous four seasons. They reached the Grey Cup three times in that span, winning it in 2018.

Bo Levi Mitchell would be named the league's Most Outstanding Player twice in those four seasons working with Dinwiddie.

Dinwiddie had coached with the Montreal Alouettes in various capacities between 2013 and 2015. While he was the team's running backs coach in 2015, Tyrell Sutton led the league in rushing.

A native of Elk Grove, just outside Sacramento, California, Dinwiddie played his NCAA football at Boise State. He was a three-year starter and finished with 9,819 yards and 82 touchdowns against just 21 interceptions. As a senior he threw 31 touchdown passes in 14 games.

He turned pro in 2004, spending a year and a training camp with the Chicago Bears. After his release he played a year in NFL Europe for the Hamburg Sea Devils.

In 2006 he'd move to Canada for the first time, playing three seasons for the Winnipeg Blue Bombers. His first start was under pressure, as it came in the 2007 Grey Cup following an injury to Kevin Glenn the week before. He'd throw for 225 yards and a TD, but also three interceptions in a 23-19 loss to Saskatchewan in Toronto.

His first regular season start took place on July 24 the next season as the Bombers hosted Calgary. He finished with 450 yards passing with one touchdown and no interceptions in a 32-28 win.

Dinwiddie continued his career in 2010 and 2011 with the Riders in a backup capacity before retiring as a player.

His coaching career began in Montreal in 2013 as a quality control coach, but by 2014 he was the Alouettes offensive coordinator. In 2015 he began the season as the running backs coach, but by September was elevated to co-offensive coordinator with Anthony Calvillo.

The Calgary Stampeders hired him as their quarterbacks coach in 2016 where he really started to have the CFL world take notice of his accomplishments, which led to the Argonauts hiring him as their head coach following the 2019 season.

COREY MACE

Defensive Coordinator

COACHING CAREER:

2022-Present: Toronto Argonauts,
Defensive Coordinator

2016-21: Calgary Stampeders,
Defensive Line Coach

Corey Mace joined the Argos on January 6, 2022, taking over the role as defensive coordinator.

The Vancouver B.C. native headed east after spending the previous 12 years with the Calgary Stampeders; six years as a player, followed by six years as their defensive line coach.

After NCAA stops at Polomar College and the University of Wyoming, Mace signed with the Buffalo Bills as an undrafted free agent in 2007, the same year the Winnipeg Blue Bombers selected him in the second round of the CFL Draft.

While the defensive tackle was spending three years with the Bills, his CFL rights were traded three times. Once to Hamilton, then to the Argos in exchange for receiver Arland Bruce III, then to Calgary for line-backer Tristan Black.

Mace signed with the Stampeders in 2010 and played a total of 40 games in red and white.

He retired after missing the entire 2015 season with an injury, immediately joining Calgary's coaching ranks as the defensive line coach, a position he held until signing with the Argos.

Mace won the 2014 Grey Cup as a player, then lifted the trophy again in 2018 as a coach. He would win his third Grey Cup in 2022, his first year in the role of defensive coordinator.

MICKEY DONOVAN

Special Teams Coordinator

COACHING CAREER:

- 2022-Present: Toronto Argonauts,
Special Teams Coordinator
- 2021: Montreal Alouettes,
Special Teams Coordinator,
Linebackers Coach
- 2018-20: Montreal Alouettes,
Special Teams Coordinator,
- 2014-17: Concordia University,
Head Coach
- 2012-13: McGill University,
Defensive Coordinator,
Assistant Head Coach

It was announced on January 19, 2022 that Donovan was joining the Argonauts as the team's special teams coordinator. He would win his first Grey Cup ring in his first season with the Double Blue.

He joined the Argos after sending the previous four years in Montreal running special teams, then additionally coaching linebackers for the Alouettes.

Coming to Toronto meant Donovan left Montreal for the first time since 2012 when he was named McGill's defensive coordinator and assistant head coach before heading down the mountain to become Concordia's head coach. He was named the RSEQ Coach of the Year in 2014. After three seasons with the Stingers he joined the Alouettes.

The Laconia, New Hampshire native began his coaching career in his home state at the University of New Hampshire, before joining the Western Mustangs as their special teams coordinator and recruiting coordinator.

Donovan was a dominant U SPORTS player after transferring to Concordia from Maine. The linebacker was a First Team All-Canadian in 2003 and 2004, winning the President's Trophy as the best defensive player in the country in 2004.

He spent parts of two seasons with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats, but a knee injury ended his career in 2006.

It's not his first time coaching the Argos, as he was a guest coach during training camp in 2013.

PETE COSTANZA

Receivers Coach

COACHING CAREER:

2022 - Present:	Toronto Argonauts, Receivers Coach, Pass Game Coordinator
2020-21:	Winnipeg Blue Bombers, Running Backs Coach
2008-19:	Calgary Stampeders, Receivers Coach
2006-07:	Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (RPI), Defensive Backs Coach
2005-07:	Albany Conquest (AF2), Head Coach
2004-05:	Columbus Destroyers (AFL), Head Coach, Offensive Coordinator
2003:	Albany Conquest (AF2), Head Coach
2002:	Columbus War Dogs (AF2), Head Coach
2001:	Iowa Barnstormers (AF2), Offensive Coordinator
2000:	Roanoke Steam (AF2), Offensive Coordinator

Pete Costanza joined the Argos in the dual role of receivers coach and pass game coordinator on January 19, 2022.

He had been with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers 2020-21 as their running backs coach, highlighted by a Grey Cup win over Hamilton in 2021.

Prior to joining the Bombers, Costanza had been the receivers coach for 12 seasons with the Calgary Stampeders 2008-19, winning the Grey Cup three times.

He joined the Argos in 2022 as the receivers coach and pass game coordinator. He would win his fifth Grey Cup ring and second in as many years with a win over his former club.

Before heading to the CFL, the graduate of William Paterson University, where he played receiver, was the head coach of the Albany Conquest in AFL2 – where he won a league title in 2003 – and the defensive backs coach at RPI.

The New Jersey native also had several arena league stops along the way. His first job in 1997 was with the New Jersey Red Dogs of the Arena Football League where he worked for the first time with John Hufnagel.

MIKE MILLER

Quarterbacks Coach

COACHING CAREER:

2022-Present:	Toronto Argonauts, Quarterbacks Coach
2020:	New York Guardians (XFL), Wide Receivers Coach
2019-20:	Westminster College, Defensive Coordinator
2016-17:	Robert Morris University, Offensive Coordinator
2014:	Edinboro University, Offensive Coordinator, Quarterbacks Coach
2013:	Montreal Alouettes, Offensive Coordinator, Quarterbacks Coach
2011-12:	Arizona Cardinals, Offensive Coordinator
2009-10:	Arizona Cardinals, Passing Game Coordinator
2007-08:	Arizona Cardinals, Wide Receivers Coach
2006:	Robert Morris University, Defensive Line Coach
2006:	Berlin Thunder (NFL Europe), Quarterbacks Coach, Wide Receivers Coach
2004-05:	Buffalo Bills, Tight Ends Coach
1999-03:	Pittsburgh Steelers, Offensive Assistant, Assistant Tight Ends Coach
1997-98:	Robert Morris University, Graduate Assistant

Mike Miller's latest stop on his well-traveled coaching journey is here in Toronto, where on January 19, 2022 he was named as the Argos quarterbacks coach.

He would finish his first year in Double Blue with a Grey Cup championship.

Miller has extensive experience in the CFL, NFL, NCAA and other pro leagues, including stints as offensive coordinator in Montreal in the CFL and Arizona in the NFL.

A Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania native, he received a master's degree in Education from Robert Morris University, where he would become the team's offensive coordinator some 20 years later.

After NFL stops in Pittsburgh and Buffalo, Miller joined the Cardinals staff as the wide receivers coach. He would be elevated to passing game coordinator the year they advanced to the Super Bowl and he would be promoted to offensive coordinator for the 2011-12 seasons.

His next stop would be in Montreal in 2013 when he was named offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Miller's most recent stop prior to coming to Toronto was with the XFL's New York Guardians as their wide receivers coach.

KRIS SWEET

Offensive Line Coach

COACHING CAREER:

2022-Present:	Toronto Argonauts, Offensive Line Coach
2021:	Howard University, Offensive Line Coach
2019:	Lyon College, Offensive Coordinator
2018:	Norfolk State University, Offensive Line Coach
2014-16:	Montreal Alouettes, Offensive Line Coach

2012:	Saskatchewan Roughriders, Offensive Line Coach
2007-11:	Calgary Stampeders, Offensive Line Coach
2006:	Columbia University, Offensive Line Coach
2005:	Kentucky State University, Offensive Line Coach
2000-04:	Presbyterian College, Tight ends/Fullbacks Coach, Offensive Line Coach, Offensive Coordinator, Recruiting Coordinator, Academic Coordinator
1999:	Elon University, Defensive Ends Coach

Sweet was announced as the Argos offensive line coach on January 19, 2022.

The Salem, Virginia native brings a wealth of expertise as an o-line coach.

He has a decade of experience coaching offensive linemen at the CFL level with stops in Montreal, Calgary, Edmonton and Saskatchewan.

He won his first Grey Cup ring with Calgary in 2008, his second came last year with the Argos.

Prior to coming to Toronto, he had most recently been at Howard University as the offensive line coach.

He took a break from coaching in 2019 as he was diagnosed with B-cell, Non-Hodgkin lymphoma.

Sweet played center and was a three-year starter at Carson-Newman College.

EDWIN HARRISON

Running Backs Coach, Quality Control

COACHING CAREER:

2022-Present: Toronto Argonauts,
Running Backs Coach, Quality Control

2019-2021: Marshall High School,
Offensive Line Coach, Assistant Head Coach

The former Calgary Stampeders and Kansas City Chiefs offensive lineman is in his second season as a pro coach.

Harrison played at the University of Colorado before heading to the Chiefs for two seasons. He would then head north to play for the Stamps 2010-15, winning a Grey Cup with Calgary in 2014.

He added a second Grey Cup ring to his collection last season with the Argos.

Harrison's grandfather, Calvin Jones, won the Outland Trophy with Iowa before heading to Calgary to play pro. Tragically, Jones was killed in a plane crash while returning from the CFL All-Star Game.

Since retiring as a player and before joining the Argos, Harrison had been teaching geography, while also being the assistant head coach and offensive line coach at Marshall High School in suburban Houston, Texas.

KEVIN EIBEN

Linebackers Coach

COACHING CAREER:

2022-Present:	Toronto Argonauts, Linebackers Coach
2020-21:	Toronto Argonauts: Linebackers Coach and Special Teams Assistant
2019:	Toronto Argonauts, Linebackers Coach
2017-18:	Toronto Argonauts, Special Teams Coordinator
2014-16:	University of Toronto, Defensive Coordinator
2013:	McMaster University, Defensive Coordinator

A fan favourite as a player, Eiben returns as the Argos linebackers coach. Now in his seventh year on the coaching staff, Eiben is the only current Toronto coach that also played for the Boatmen.

He joined the Argos staff after three years at the University of Toronto as the Blues defensive coordinator. He held the same title at McMaster in 2013, his first year after announcing his retirement from the CFL.

Eiben was a tackling machine in his 11 seasons with Toronto, before wrapping up his career with one final year in Hamilton.

The linebacker ranks second in CFL history in tackles by a Canadian player, trailing only his long-time teammate Mike O'Shea. His 113 tackles in 2005 is still the league record for most tackles in a season by a Canadian.

A native of Delta, B.C., Eiben was a fourth-round selection in 2001. He'd become a five-time All-Star, being named the Argos Most Outstanding Player in 2004, a year they went on to win the Grey Cup.

A student of the game as a player, entering the coaching ranks was a natural progression. He finished his career with 92 special teams tackles in Toronto, including an eye opening 33 in 2003, still the Argos single-season record.

He now has three Grey Cup rings; 2004 as a player and 2017 and 2022 as a coach. Eiben played his college football at Bucknell University.

Fields is back for a second season in Toronto.

The former defensive back played for six seasons with Calgary and Winnipeg before entering the coaching ranks.

He was a member of the Calgary Stampeders when they won the Grey Cup in 2001 before adding another Grey Cup ring last season with the Argos.

A native of McKeesport, Pennsylvania, he began coaching at Cypress Christian High School in Houston, Texas before returning to Canada to coach at Simon Fraser University in 2014. He then returned to the CFL with coaching stops in B.C., Montreal and Edmonton.

Fields coached in the XFL as the secondary coach with the Tampa Vipers.

He is a graduate of the University of Houston.

JOSHUA BELL

Defensive Backs Coach

COACHING CAREER:

2021-Present: Toronto Argonauts,
Defensive Backs Coach

2018-20: Calgary Stampeders,
Defensive Backs Coach

The high-energy coach brings a championship pedigree and a boatload of enthusiasm to Toronto.

Bell became a coach after spending 10 seasons as a player in the NFL with San Diego, Denver and Green Bay, then in the CFL with B.C and Calgary.

He retired as a Stampeder player on February 1, 2018 and became their defensive backs coach the same day. He'd coach for two seasons in Calgary before joining the Argos in 2021.

Bell returned to Toronto in 2022 after leaving the team in mid-2021 for personal reasons.

The former defensive back is in rare company, having won both a Grey Cup ring (Calgary) and a Super Bowl ring (Green Bay) as a player. He added another CFL championship as a coach with the Stamps, then won yet another title last season with the Argos.

He was the CFL West Division all-star safety in 2015.

The Dallas native played his college football in-state at Baylor.
